Captain and Five Others On British Ship Killed By Chinese.

LONDON, July 14.-Dispatches from Canton tell of a desperate battle between Chinese pirates and a British ship near Canton.

The British ship Sainam, Captain Josling, was attacked by a horde of pirates in junks and small boats. It was only after the most desperate resistance that they were beaten off, Several times some of the desperado gained the deck of the Sainam, and the fighting became hand to hand, knives and pistols being used freely. mately the pirates were driven off and the ship proceeded to port.

In the fighting Captain Josling, Dr. McDonald, a passenger, and four of the Sikh crew of the Sainam were killed and practically every one of the survivors were more or less injured. The pirate loss was heavy.

The Chinese government has sent a gunboat in chase of the pirates.

Why? Because we are not in the Trust;
because we do as we advertise and because we are enemies of the high priced
